The First National Bank of Ipswich
Celebrates 30 Years in Gloucester

Gloucester, MA - May 2010 – The First National Bank of Ipswich (FNBI) celebrated 30 years in Gloucester by holding a week long celebration from May 3rd – May 8th at the 207 Main Street branch. The celebration included daily refreshments, give-aways and drawings for various prizes, including an e-Machine NetBook.

On Tuesday, May 4, Senator Bruce Tarr presented the Branch with a formal Citation recognizing the Bank's contribution to the community. "We are extremely proud to be a longstanding part of the Gloucester community," said Russ Cole, President and Chief Executive Officer. "For 30 years, FNBI has helped individual customers succeed and local businesses grow, so it is a great pleasure to be able to share in this celebration with the people who have helped us achieve our goals, as well."

The First National Bank of Ipswich is a commercial community bank with branch offices in Boston, Essex, Gloucester, Ipswich, Newburyport and Rowley, Massachusetts. The Bank can be found on the web at www.fnbi.com.
