Ipswich, MA, – Russ Cole, President & CEO of The First National Bank of Ipswich (FNBI) presents a check in the amount of $1,240.00 to Tim Riley, Executive Director of Action, Inc.- a human services organization serving the Cape Ann area. The check represents funds raised from FNBI's fall Shred-a-Thon held in the bank's main office parking lot. The popular semi-annual event is a recycling program, during which local businesses and residents, for a fee, can destroy and recycle confidential documents through the support of FNBI's employees and Northeast Record Retention.
